

Evonik to Increase Prices for Polyurethane Additives in Greater China

March 2, 2011

Evonik will increase the prices for all Polyurethane Additives by up to 10% in Greater China because of rising raw material costs. The price increase will be effective for all deliveries on or after March 15, 2011.

Evonik Industries has been producing specialty chemical products in China since the early 1990's; with wide-ranging trading relations already in place prior to this. The Group now has a total of 20 companies and 16 production sites in the Greater China region. Evonik regards China as one of the driving forces of the global economy, and we consequently intend to increase our business in Greater China to around €2 billion by 2015.
